January 30, 2018 - Hughes Hubbard's antitrust group has been recognized as one of the leading practices in New York and Washington by Global Competition Review, the world's leading antitrust and competition law journal.

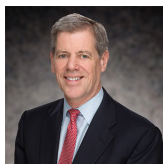

The 2018 edition of the GCR 100, which lists the world's top competition practices, marks the second time in three years that the New York team has been selected for inclusion and the first time for the DC team "after receiving praise from many in the DC bar." GCR noted that "a solid group of associates" assists practice head Bill Kolasky who "has done a great job out of the DC office."

For 18 years, GCR 100 has provided a quantitative and qualitative analysis of the law firms and economic consultancies doing the most important antitrust work around the world.
