May 29, 2019 — For the fourth consecutive year, partner Amy G. Dulin has been selected for inclusion in Latinvex's "Latin America's Top 100 Female Lawyers."

The list, published on May 22, ranked Dulin in the following categories: banking & finance; corporate/M&A; and project finance. Dulin was also ranked, along with Freddie Goudie, in the banking & finance and corporate/M&A categories of Latinvex's "Latin America's Top Lawyers 2019" list, published in February.

The May 22 list includes a profile of Dulin that cites Chambers Latin America 2019, which singled out her work on Latin America-wide banking & finance matters.

"Amy Dulin has a stellar track record advising on regional banking and financing matters," Chambers said, adding that one client commented: "Amy has been instrumental in all the deals in which we have worked together, not only structured deals, but unsecured ones as well. Lenders and borrowers really like working with her. She is super professional, always on top of transactions, and on hand to provide necessary advice to her clients."

Latinvex bases its ranking on a combination of factors, including recent track record on major deals and business, prominence of the firm in Latin America and rankings by third parties, such as Chambers and Partners, Legal 500 and Thomson Reuters.
